My family entered restaurant to place order for food. Wife explained, husband has hearing guide dog, and will momentarily be in to place his food order. Ms. Chester adamantly told wife - "No dogs allowed in restaurant." Wife explained "husband has identification card, and leash. Husband was motioned to come over to show Ms. Chester. Ms. Chester's Response: "I know I am right - No dogs allowed!"

Another male customer in left side made rude remarks regarding never heard of dogs in restaurant - Overstepped boundaries, Supervisor took no action to control, or to protect my freedom or rights to public facility.

IV. RELIEF.

State briefly and exactly what you want this court to do for you.

I personally had my privileges reduced to eat in public; my rights as an individual with certified Guidedog was stifled! My family has lost Trust in public; we had filed a complaint with Florence County Sheriff, C. Nethercutt, and he had no control to enforce the Law. Magistrate Eugence Cooper, and Judge James Harwell of Florence City/County Magistrate Court did NOT serve justice to me! I have suffered emotional distress, my family shuns me - we now have limited our visits to a handful of public restaurants that know us, but, our world is encapsulated in fear, frustration, and outcasting in view of customers. Restore my rights, remuneration for professional counseling, and monetary fine I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. collected to reward my infringed rights!
